

Colorado Horsemen's Day at the Capitol January 19th, 2009

Horsemen throughout Colorado are invited to spend an exciting day at the State Capitol in Denver on January 19th, 2009. The Rocky Mountain Quarter Horse Association, The Colorado Thoroughbred Breeders Association and the Colorado Horse Racing Association are sponsoring the big event.

Top officials from both the American Quarter Horse Association and the Jockey Club are scheduled to attend and discuss the horse industry's future with the Colorado horsemen in attendance. The day's events will begin with a breakfast for both horsemen and legislators, followed by brief reviews of issues before the legislature. The horsemen will then go meet with their individual legislators.

Top on the list of issues the horsemen will be discussing will be the proposed Colorado Horse Breeders Incentive Fund. The proposal is an economic growth plan for the Colorado horse industry that will be funded by the Colorado Racing Industry.

All horsemen are invited and there is no charge for attending. More information will be available at www.ColoradoHorseCoalition.com or by emailing coloradohorse@yahoo.com.
